A message from Yvonne and Mike Stanley: As some of you may already know, sadly, after two years of chemotherapy, Mike is now at home, being cared for by palliative nurses. We continue to value our privacy but always knew that our parish were thinking of us and held us in their prayers. Mike is comfortable and spending valuable time with his family. Faith has been a part of this journey for us all. Please continue to pray for us.

May, Month of Our Blessed Mother Mary: During May the Rosary is said after every weekday Mass in Church. We will be praying especially for all those known to us who are on Palliative Care, that Our Blessed Mother may embrace them into the depths of her maternal love. Anyone who is willing to lead the Rosary please put your name against a suitable day on the list at the back of Church. Please be generous with your time for prayer.

Mass of Anointing: There will be a Mass of Anointing here at St Joseph's at 11 am on the First Saturday of Every Month. June 1st is the next. May I ask if our special ministers would enquire if those they visit in their homes would like to join us should they feel able. Transport will be available.
